New business:

Moore: While at the Rod and Custom show last month I spoke with Dean Fait and Bobbi Jo Cox, both of which were at Cordova Raceway's booth. Bobbi is the PR director and both persons seemed interested in having us run events out in the pit area again. They also mentioned Scott Gardner had brought up such events before he left. I have contact info listed below if someone would have the chance to get a hold of them, if this is something we as a club would like to pursue. I was told they can be reached during normal business hours.
